“Jesus left the vicinity of Tyre and went through Sidon, down to the Sea of Galilee and into the region of the Decapolis. There some people carried a man to Jesus who was deaf and could hardly talk, and they begged Him to place His hand on the man.

After Jesus took him aside, away from the crowd, Jesus put His fingers into the man’s ears. Then He spit and touched the man’s tongue. Jesus looked up to heaven and with a deep sigh, said to him, ‘Ef-fatha!’ (which means “Be opened!”) At this, the man’s ears were opened, his tongue was loosened and he began to speak plainly.

Jesus commanded them not to tell anyone. But the more He did so, the more they kept talking about it. People were overwhelmed with amazement. ‘He has done everything well,’ they said. ‘He even makes the deaf hear and the mute speak.’”
